

Circulation yesterday 7745.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1918.

TEN PAGES.

3c PER COPY.

VOL. 67. NO. 150.

PHILIPP AND WILCOX ARE RUNNING EVEN

SECURE HOLD ON BANK OF NORD CANAL

BRITISH ARMY HAS GAINED A HOLD ON WEST BANK OF CANAL ACCORDING TO LATEST REPORTS.

ATTACK IS REPULSED

Counter-attack Started Early This Morning by Huns Has Been Repulsed with Heavy Losses.

London, Sept. 4.—The British have secured a hold on the west bank of the Canal-du-Nord by taking Ramiacourt to the North of Saint-Léz-Marquion according to advices from the battle front today.

Near the Somme the British advances state, have crossed the canal at Haut-Allaines, slightly more than two miles north of Per-onne.

Tulie Villages.
Further south along the canal they are reported to have captured Inchy-en-Artois, Drocourt, to the east of Douai, and Hermitage, the village southwest of Douai. From Hermitage southward the British line is increased as running to the west of Bertincourt, a mile and a half east of Bertincourt, mid-way between Noyon and Sailly in the Lys salient, the British have captured the village of Croix du Bac.

Ninety-seven German Divisions.

Since the opening of the combined
French-British operation, August 8, no less than ninety-seven German divisions have been engaged on the battle front.

Initial Attack.

London, Forces of the central powers on the morning of September 2, attacked the entente allied troops under cover of an intense bombardment on the left bank of the Vardar river in Macedonia. An official statement issued today by the war office says the enemy was driven back by counter-attack.

English Advance.

London, Sept. 4.—In their push beyond the Drocourt-Quent line British troops have reached the line of the Canal du Nord says Field Marshal Haig's official statement today. North of the Arras Cambrai road they have occupied the town of Ecourt St. Quentin. North of Peronne the advance has carried the British through the Vaux wood above Mailly. Slight advances have been scored at other points. Continuing their advance in Moldavia the British are approaching Nauve-Chapelle and Levente. In the same region they have gained possession of Sallly-sur-Lys and Nieppes.

The main force of the British push seems to be in the direction of Cambrai along both the Cambrai-Cambrai and Arras-Cambrai road in the sector lying between these highways.
In this area they are reported today to have captured the town of Inchy-en-Artois and Meuvres. This represents an advance of between three and one-half and four miles since yesterday beyond southern section of the famous "switch" line at Quent.

No Signs of Attack.

London, via Montreal—Today there was still no sign of the expected German counter stroke on the western front which may be delivered if the Germans' wishes to save the situation. Prisoners speak of a great mysterious army head by General Von Macleishen which is ready to pounce on the allies but its whereabouts are unknown.

Mangin's Army Busy.

Paris.—General Mangin's army has been busily engaged in the last three days in bitter resistance by the Germans to its advance in the southern area of the battle front. His forces have marked times in some instances and at points retreated slightly, but they now have succeeded in regaining the better of the enemy actions and resumed their forward push after advancing the first of the important town of Coucy-le-Chateau and its fall recently reported.

Resisting Movement.

French Advance.

Paris, Sept. 4.—French troops retired and last night continued to fall back the Germans to the east of the Canal du Nord and between the Aisne and the Aisne. On the Aisne, the town of Busy-le-Long was penetrated to the number of 1,500 men.

Along the Vesle parties of French troops crossed the river at several points.

Continue to Advance.

Paris.—Between Ypres and Rethens
in Flanders Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

General Mangin, commanding the St.
Quentin sector, crossed the Chemin des
Dames. General Humbert and
in advancing on St. Quentin and
the Franco-American on the
Yser with General Rollinson before
Peronne, General Byng before Lens
and General Plumer before Armentiers
the enemy feels the soil of

France.

School Shoes

For Boys and Girls A Complete Line

D.J. LUBY

LOOK FOR OUR SIGN ON THE WAGON BEFORE YOU GO. We are in the market for all kinds of wagons, and the highest market prices at all times. We are trying to help out Uncle Sam with material, as we must win the war, and you know every little bit helps.

S. W. ROTSTEIN IRON CO.
214 S. River St.
Old phone 459. New phone Black 704

The Janesville Dry Goods Co.
22 S. River St.

Will Be Closed All Day Saturday On Account Of Holiday

Do your shopping before Saturday.

We are paying the highest prices for Hairs, Scraps, Irons, Papers, Hides and all kinds of junks. We have two yards. The Cohen Bros.
New Yard, 228 N. Main, Beloit, 206.
Old Yard, 228 Park St., E. C. 902
Check: Bell, 1300

E. C. BAUMANN
18 No. Main St.

Japan Tea, value 60c. The Tea with a flavor, lb. 50c
Yuban Coffee, regular price 85c; my price . . . . . 85c
Special on Old Master Coffee for a few days: Regular price, 40c; my price at . . . . . 35c
Maple and Cane Syrup, at . . . . . 25c, 30c, 50c
Use it in place of sugar for baking.
Campbell's Beans . . . . . 20c
Corn Starch

DIRECTS MAKING OF U. S. SMALL ARMS

Col. John T. Thompson.

Col. John Taliaferro Thompson is directing the manufacture of small arms, rifles, revolvers, etc., for Uncle Sam. He produced the new army rifle. He has increased the production and standardization of the weapons. He, his father and son are graduates of West Point.

Nut Tree Slow In Bearing. The Brazil nut tree does not begin to bear until it is fifty years old.

COLORED WAR MAP 25c.

Size 23x36 inches with index of all towns, rivers, canals, forests—so you can find them in a second. As you read the news dispatches you see just where the action takes place. Sent anywhere for 25c or FREE with a year's subscription to the Daily Gazette.

WHALEY WINS HOT RACE FOR CORONER

D. Frank Ryan, Present Incumbent, Defeated After One of Hottest Races Ever Seen in County.

In one of the hottest races ever staged for the office of county coroner Lynn A. Whaley beat out D. Frank Ryan, the present incumbent, by a margin of 178 votes. Whaley's total vote in the county was 2,118, while Ryan is credited with 2,042.

The office of coroner, which ten years ago went hogging, now goes to Lynn Whaley after a hard fight. The first, second, and third wards in the city all gave Whaley comfortable margins while in the fourth and fifth Ryan won by a hair's breadth. The two candidates worked hard in Beloit, while they had neck and neck in every ward. When the vote in Janesville was totaled last night it was seen that Whaley had a comfortable lead and that if he ran an even race in Beloit he would be nominated. The Gateway City division had voted between the two candidates, making Whaley's nomination certain.

LYNN A. WHALEY.

The returns of the vote for the office of coroner, with one precinct missing, follows:

|                        | Whaley | Ryan  |
|------------------------|--------|-------|
| Beloit                 | 14     | 14    |
| Bradford               | 12     | 12    |
| Clinton                | 8      | 8     |
| DeForest               | 22     | 16    |
| Janesville             | 22     | 16    |
| Johnstown              | 14     | 23    |
| La Prairie             | 18     | 26    |
| Linn                   | 28     | 14    |
| Magnolia               | 50     | 44    |
| Milton                 | 25     | 13    |
| Newark                 | 40     | 21    |
| Plymouth               | 11     | 16    |
| Poynette               | 28     | 16    |
| Polk                   | 31     | 6     |
| Spring Valley          | 14     | 21    |
| Turtle                 | 14     | 21    |
| Union                  | 24     | 14    |
| Clinton Village        | 13     | 21    |
| Footville Village      | 28     | 41    |
| Stevens Village        | 16     | 38    |
| Verdell                | 91     | 90    |
| Edgerton               | 43     | 105   |
| Janesville, 1st ward   | 78     | 67    |
| 2nd ward, 1st precinct | 102    | 102   |
| 2nd ward, 2nd precinct | 71     | 135   |
| 3rd ward               | 92     | 114   |
| 4th ward, 1st precinct | 68     | 63    |
| 4th ward, 2nd precinct | 77     | 74    |
| JANESVILLE, 1st ward   | 93     | 219   |
| 2nd ward               | 97     | 147   |
| 3rd ward               | 102    | 256   |
| 4th ward               | 170    | 150   |
| 5th ward               | 88     | 82    |
| Totals                 | 2,118  | 2,042 |

MEET TONIGHT: Daughters of Isabella will meet in West Side L. O. F. hall this evening. Large audience desired. Mrs. E. F. Henning Secretary.

WILL MEET: Janesville Chapter No. 5 R. A. M. meets Thursday evening. Work in the P. M. Degree.

BOARDS NAMED FOR REGISTRATION DAY

Will Have Charge of Registering Men Between Ages of 18 and 45 on Thursday, September 12th.

All arrangements have been made for the registration of the men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five on Thursday, September 12th. The men will register in the different polling places throughout the city. It is requested that a very large number will register in this district and plans have been perfected so that there will be no congestion. It is requested that the men register as early in the morning as possible and not wait until in the evening.

The following boards have been named for the wards to have charge of the registering:

First Ward: S. D. Dunwidde, Frank Spoon, George H. Davy, Harry Garbutt, H. W. McNamara.

Second Ward: M. P. Richardson, Francis Grant, H. A. Moeser, W. H. Grose, S. E. Burnham, Fred W. Cunningham, H. J. Cunningham, Thomas S. Nolan, Charles H. Lange, J. P. Hammelund, O. S. Morse.

Fourth Ward: William McCue, T. J. Birmingham, S. A. Cooper, George W. Muenchow, F. E. Lane.

Fifth Ward: Edward H. Peterson, Wilson Lane, Alvin Schaller, E. F. Kelly, George H. Rumill.

THOMAS NOLAN WINS OVER WILLIAM GILLIES

By a vote of nearly two to one Thomas Nolan of this city won over William W. Gillies of Evansville for member of the Assembly from the First Wisconsin District. The total vote was 1,413 for Mr. Nolan and 743 for Mr. Gillies.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Robert O. Whipple, wife of the sheriff of Rock County, were held at two o'clock this afternoon from the residence at the jail. The funeral was a large one, a large number of friends and relatives gathering for the last sad rites for the deceased. An impressive sermon was delivered by the Rev. Fletcher of Beloit. The pallbearers were Cassius Whipple, Ed. Fitch of Beloit, and George Muenchow of Janesville. The remains were taken to Beloit by auto, where interment was made in the Beloit city cemetery.

BELOIT MAN RECEIVES HEAVY FINE IN COURT

Cecil Kenesey of Beloit, who was arraigned in the municipal court yesterday morning charged with driving an auto while intoxicated and had his trial set for Sept. 9th and was taken into court this morning.

Evidence was taken from Patrolman Cain and Captain Morrissey this morning and on their evidence he was found guilty. Judge Maxfield fined him ninety dollars and costs or ninety days. He paid his fine.

LaFollette Will Return

Madison—Senator Robert M. LaFollette will return to the United States Senate to resume his work within the next few days. The senator passed through Chicago, enroute for Pomona, Cal., where he is taking his son, Robert Jr., for treatment. The Senator was accompanied by Mrs. LaFollette and daughter, Mary. Senator LaFollette will return immediately to Washington, however, to take up his work in the Senate floor.

Nearly five months ago, owing to the illness of his son, Senator LaFollette left the Senate, and while he has been kept in touch with proceedings, has been unable to participate in any of the activities of the Senate. About a month ago, his son, Robert Jr., was taken to Hot Springs, Va., for treatment, but physicians have decided that the California climate would be better. The party passed through Chicago on Monday.

NEW SERIAL STORY WILL START FRIDAY

The first installment of the GAZETTE'S new serial story "Carolyn of the Corners" will appear in the paper next Friday. The story is by Ruth Belmore Endicott and is considered by well known critics to be one of the best of that well known author. It is a story of everyday life full of thrills, laughter and a few tears. It is exceedingly humorous in parts and is a story that will be greeted with favor by all.

DRILL THURSDAY IS THE ORDER ISSUED

Lieutenant Baumann, commanding Company G, 8th Infantry, has issued an order for a special drill for Thursday evening. Members of the company will be ready to report in uniform at seven forty-five. There will also be a detachment of the company ordered out for service in connection with the entombment of the recruits leaving the city tomorrow evening.

Japan Tea, value 60c. The Tea with a flavor, lb. 50c

Yuban Coffee, regular price 85c; my price . . . . . 85c

Special on Old Master Coffee for a few days: Regular price, 40c; my price at . . . . . 35c

Maple and Cane Syrup, at . . . . . 25c, 30c, 50c

Use it in place of sugar for baking.

Campbell's Beans . . . . . 20c

Corn Starch

Totals . . . . . 2,042 2,218

MEET TONIGHT: Daughters of Isabella will meet in West Side L. O. F. hall this evening. Large audience desired. Mrs. E. F. Henning Secretary.

WILL MEET: Janesville Chapter No. 5 R. A. M. meets Thursday evening. Work in the P. M. Degree.

Japan Tea, value 60c. The Tea with a flavor, lb. 50c

Yuban Coffee, regular price 85c; my price . . . . . 85c

Special on Old Master Coffee for a few days: Regular price, 40c; my price at . . . . . 35c

Maple and Cane Syrup, at . . . . . 25c, 30c, 50c

Use it in place of sugar for baking.

Campbell's Beans . . . . . 20c

Corn Starch

Totals . . . . . 2,042 2,218

MEET TONIGHT: Daughters of Isabella will meet in West Side L. O. F. hall this evening. Large audience desired. Mrs. E. F. Henning Secretary.

WILL MEET: Janesville Chapter No. 5 R. A. M. meets Thursday evening. Work in the P. M. Degree.

Japan Tea, value 60c. The Tea with a flavor, lb. 50c

Yuban Coffee, regular price 85c; my price . . . . . 85c

Special on Old Master Coffee for a few days: Regular price, 40c; my price at . . . . . 35c

Maple and Cane Syrup, at . . . . . 25c, 30c, 50c

Use it in place of sugar for baking.

Campbell's Beans . . . . . 20c

Corn Starch

Totals . . . . . 2,042 2,218

MEET TONIGHT: Daughters of Isabella will meet in West Side L. O. F. hall this evening. Large audience desired. Mrs. E. F. Henning Secretary.

WILL MEET: Janesville Chapter No. 5 R. A. M. meets Thursday evening. Work in the P. M. Degree.

Japan Tea, value 60c. The Tea with a flavor, lb. 50c

Yuban Coffee, regular price 85c; my price . . . . . 85c

Special on Old Master Coffee for a few days: Regular price, 40c; my price at . . . . . 35c

Maple and Cane Syrup, at . . . . . 25c, 30c, 50c

Use it in place of sugar for baking.

Campbell's Beans . . . . . 20c

Corn Starch

Totals . . . . . 2,042 2,218

MEET TONIGHT: Daughters of Isabella will meet in West Side L. O. F. hall this evening. Large audience desired. Mrs. E. F. Henning Secretary.

WILL MEET: Janesville Chapter No. 5 R. A. M. meets Thursday evening. Work in the P. M. Degree.

Japan Tea, value 60c. The Tea with a flavor, lb. 50c

Yuban Coffee, regular price 85c; my price . . . . . 85c

Special on Old Master Coffee for a few days: Regular price, 40c; my price at . . . . . 35c

Maple and Cane Syrup, at . . . . . 25c, 30c, 50c

Use it in place of sugar for baking.

Campbell's Beans . . . . . 20c

Corn Starch

Totals . . . . . 2,042 2,218

MEET TONIGHT: Daughters of Isabella will meet in West Side L. O. F. hall this evening. Large audience desired. Mrs. E. F. Henning Secretary.

WILL MEET: Janesville Chapter No. 5 R. A. M. meets Thursday evening. Work in the P. M. Degree.

Japan Tea, value 60c. The Tea with a flavor, lb. 50c

Yuban Coffee, regular price 85c; my price . . . . . 85c

Special on Old Master Coffee for a few days: Regular price, 40c; my price at . . . . . 35c

Maple and Cane Syrup, at . . . . . 25c, 30c, 50c

Use it in

Milton Junction

Milton Junction, Sept. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. G. Stone left Tuesday for Dicklow, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Webster, Mrs. H. Warren, and the Hergenreiter of Alton spent Sunday with Mrs. George Palmer. Mrs. Fannie Palmer and Mrs. Helen Braver and Connie Hergenreiter are going to Elkhorn where they will teach in the Merrill school. Mrs. Alice Hergenreiter has left for Elkhorn, where she will visit her son, Will, the auto and family. A. C. St. C. Hull and Miss Zetta A. St. C. Hull, wife of George Hull, returned Tuesday from a road trip to town. Mrs. Anna Driver will leave today for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will teach at the Cheyenne Hospital and Baby Home. Mrs. Bertie Larson and baby have gone to Berlin, Wis., Tuesday, along with Mr. and Mrs. Walther. Mr. Walther has been installing new furniture for Glenn Shorts in his shop. Mrs. Ray Hull and daughter, Anna, were over Monday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hull near Elkhorn. Marion is here from Madison to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mullen, and other relatives.

Orfordville News

Sept. 2.—Autoless Sunday observed by Orfordville citizens in a way that is commendable and befitting for them a desire to assist in the conservation of what little the government deemed wise to conserve. The violators could be fined on the hedges of the two banks of the river and family of strength spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel and family. While the bank was closed on Labor day, the stores of the village were opened as usual.

John Fowler of Jamesville is spending some time with his son, Ed., and wife, Anna.

The funeral of the late Edward Hart, who was killed in an auto accident Friday evening, was held on Saturday conducted by Rev. Ivan Ramer, pastor of the Luther Valley church.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wee spent Sunday with Orfordville friends, returning to their home on Sunday afternoon. Miss Ethel Stuvenengen will teach at the Spring Valley Corners school during the year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gavay visited with friends at Madison on Saturday. They made the trip by automobile.

SHARON

Sept. 3.—The Misses Eloise Gunderson and Dorothy Cartell of Beloit were over Sunday with Miss Amy Jensen.

Wheeler Stevens is a patient at the Vener Hospital in Janesville, and Mrs. Stevens is staying with him for a few days.

Mrs. Z. Clark has returned from a visit in Big Foot, with the Misses Wilkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pond are spending the week in Madison, at their lake home.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner Adams returned home Monday from a visit in Madison with relatives.

Mrs. S. Parkes and daughter, Helen, who have been visiting her niece, Miss Olive Denison, returned to their home in Chicago, Monday.

Miss Josie West has returned from a long weeks' visit in Elkhorn and Milton.

Mrs. F. E. Parks has gone to Rockford to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bert Ryerson and husband.

Mrs. Fannie Arnold, Mrs. George Brigham of St. Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Arnold and children of Chicago, spent the week end in Beloit with Mr. and Mrs. Will Arnold.

Miss Anna Morgan and son Carl, returned home Monday, from a visit in Clinton.

Bruna Jane Burton and Grace Kerr returned home Monday, from a week's visit in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Osmond and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherman, spent Saturday and Sunday at their cottage at Delavan Lake.

The Misses Helen Burton and Nellie Simonson, who are nurses in the Janesville Hospital, spent Sunday at their homes in town.

Miss Josephine Goodrich, who has been spending the past month with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherman, left Monday for her home in Chicago.

Miss Loo Wish of Beloit is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burton.

Miss Beth Parks left Monday, for Chicago, where she will teach in the Public schools the coming year.

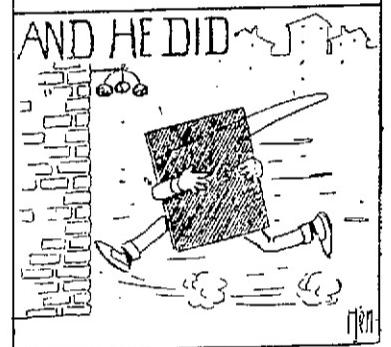

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Arnold and children of Chicago, and Mrs. George Brigham of St. Louis, who have been visiting Mrs. Fannie Arnold, left Monday for their respective homes.

The Gazette is for sale in Sharon by Lyle Burton. Deliveries will be made to your home if desired.

Adopt Resolution

Appleton.—Resolutions pledging the best efforts of Appleton trade unions to the winning of the war were adopted at the last meeting of the Trades and Labor Council. The council also voted unanimously in favor of the patriotic fund out of which all money for war activities are to be paid.

AND HE DID

DELAVAL

Delavan, Sept. 3.—Donald McCoy, from Chicago, was visiting friends and relatives over Labor day.

Carroll Blanchard from the Great Lakes Naval Station was home on a few days' furlough.

Joe Conkle of Beloit is visiting friends and relatives in Delavan for a couple of days.

Kelly is in Chicago visiting his sister, Miss Frank Cowan, and also attending the war exposition held there this week.

Mrs. Elmer Cahill and son, Byron, returned from a visit in Chicago.

Harold Buell, Paul Lange and George Kilkenny returned from Chicago Saturday night, the trip being made by auto.

Miss Phyllis McSorley and Eva O'Neill and Messrs. H. Hackett and M. Brott attended the celebration at Lake Geneva yesterday.

Mrs. S. O'Neill is visiting her husband in Racine for a few days this week.

Miss Pearl Fleming from Chicago is visiting the jungle. Will Fleming, at Chillicothe, Ohio, and Fay have enlisted in the navy and will leave September 12th for Great Lakes, Ill.

School commenced Tuesday morning with Miss Jones as principal and Miss Bingham in the primary room.

Mrs. Albright and children of Chicago left for their home in Chicago.

Sunday evening after spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brand.

Mr. Borst of Sharon spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Simonson.

Fran Swingle of Racine spent Sunday at the home of W. W. Swingle.

The Klingberg family entertained Milwaukee relatives over Labor day.

SHOPERE

Shopere, Sept. 3.—Mrs. Butler received an official telegram Friday announcing that Corporal Lester Butler had been killed in action Aug. 4.

Miss Kate Craig of Center spent over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Weirick and daughter of Beloit visited over Labor day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Weirick.

Rev. and Mrs. Bennett left Monday morning for Appleton as the M. E. conference will be held there this week.

Mrs. Ethel Culliton of Minneapolis is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Miss Ida Sweet has been quite sick, but is some better.

Bobbie McGrone is quite ill with quinsy.

Friends attended a farewell party given for George Clark and Fay Espey. George has gone to camp at Chillicothe, Ohio, and Fay has enlisted in the navy and will leave September 12th for Great Lakes, Ill.

School commenced Tuesday morning with Miss Jones as principal and Miss Bingham in the primary room.

Mrs. Albright and children of Chicago left for their home in Chicago.

Sunday evening after spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brand.

Mr. Borst of Sharon spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Simonson.

Fran Swingle of Racine spent Sunday at the home of W. W. Swingle.

The Klingberg family entertained Milwaukee relatives over Labor day.

EAST PORTER

East Porter, Sept. 2.—John Fierman or Grand Rapids is spending a few days at the J. Murphy home.

Mrs. Zetta Kealey of Janesville is spending her vacation at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harnack were Janesville visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Stevens and son of Rockford spent the weekend at the home of P. D. Davis.

Mr. and M. C. Stricker and daughter of Elkhorn spent the past week at the home of W. Handlike.

Miss Hartle Lay spent a few days of the past week in Edgerton.

Mrs. J. Lay and daughter Marie were Janesville visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Peters of Stoughton, Mr. and Mrs. E. McDonough, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Stricker of Edgerton spent Sunday at the home of E. Handlike.

Mrs. J. Murphy and son Frank, and daughter Anna, were Rockdale visitors Thursday.

Friends of Mrs. E. Davis are glad to hear that she is rapidly recovering from her recent operation at the Mercy hospital at Janesville.

Miss Marie Fox spent Wednesday in Janesville.

Mrs. Genevieve Kealy went to Milwaukee Monday, where she began her second year of school work Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neupert returned from a visit in Chicago, Monday night.

Fred Fishman and grandson, Frederick Quinn, left for Milwaukee Monday night for a visit with relatives.

B. Wright has moved into the Jake Dahl house on South Sixth street.

NOTICE—Gazette is on sale at Rusk's Drug Store, opposite the Post Office.

EMERALD GROVE

Emerald Grove, Sept. 2.—The ladies auxiliary meets Thursday afternoon, Sept. 5, with Miss Eliza Lloyd. There will be a picnic supper. All are invited.

Miss Vina McArthur will illustrate "War Breads."

Mrs. Roberton returned to her home in S. D. and her daughter returned to Chicago the first of the week after visiting with relatives in this community.

Osgood Johnson and family of Rockford are here spending a few days with his brothers, Ed. and Will, and aunt, Miss Caroline Harson.

Mrs. Shanning and son of Jefferson spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boss.

Miss Vina McArthur is home from Menomonie for a short vacation.

The Red Cross school will serve ice cream at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hanson Friday evening. Every one is welcome.

Rev. and Mrs. Marks went to Monroe on Thursday. He returned Saturday but she will visit relatives for a while.

Louis Playlor came home Friday from Camp Grant, and spent a few days here.

Mrs. C. D. Fitch of Janesville spent Saturday with relatives. Her mother, Mrs. Lester went home with her for a short visit.

Mrs. A. Doss is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Paulson of Blanchardville, Wis.

Mrs. Ruth Wetmore began teaching in high school at Clinton and Miss Miss Jones opened school southeast of Alton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walther, formerly storekeeper here, now of Rockford, called on friends Thursday. Mrs. Wm. Lloyd and son went to Rockford with them for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lester and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown spent Thursday fishing at Lake Delton.

Little Nedra Mae Chamberlain had her tonsils removed Friday and is getting along nicely.

A. N. Jones of Janesville was looking over the tobacco fields in this neighborhood Monday.

A meeting was held by the church board on Friday evening and a committee appointed to see what can be done toward building a new parsonage. It is hoped every one will try and help a little as the building is badly needed.

Sunday was a quiet day as very few autos passed through the village.

About the usual number attended church service but no autos were at the church. Some of our boys took their faithful old horses in the evening that they might fill a previous appointment and still be loyal to our government's request.

Rock Prairie, Sept. 2.—The Ladies' Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Youngclaus on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A Red Cross work meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Wehler on Tuesday afternoon.

There will be no ice cream social at the home of W. B. Austin next Friday evening. The proceeds will go to the soldiers' relief fund, to be drawn upon by the local Red Cross society as needed. The drawing of the lucky number on the silk quilt will take place.

The Juniors will meet at the home of Mrs. A. J. Barlass on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Katherine McLay is spending a few days in Chicago.

One hundred and seven pairs of socks were turned in last week by Mrs. Z. K. Hadden from the Johnson's Rock Prairie Red Cross.

Rev. Kyle will occupy the pulpit at the U. P. church next Sunday.

LA PRAIRIE

La Prairie, Sept. 3.—The South Side Red Cross group will meet with Mrs. Jay Gleason, Friday afternoon, Sept. 6th.

Mrs. Wm. Conway will entertain the Royal Neighbors at her home, on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Rockford, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Rockwell, Sunday and Monday.

R. H. Howard and Norman Howard are Chicago visitors, today.

Lost and found articles quickly find their owner by use of a little classified

Largest Amphitheatre In The World On a

Half Mile Track

GREATEST COUNTY FAIR IN THE WORLD

Walworth County Fair

ELKHORN, WIS.

September 17, 18, 19, 20, 1918.

The Great Speed Event of Wisconsin Fairs. Four days of racing; Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Two $1000.00 Stake Races. Nine class races making $6100.00 in the racing program.

Ten Great Free Acts in front of the Amphitheater every day.

Dolores Vallecita and her imperial group of performing leopards, the greatest animal act in America.

Four Handsome Girls, gorgeously costumed, presenting the most novel, unique production that has ever been offered for outdoor entertainment.

The Fondelli Trio Acrobats, who have no equal in acrobatic acts.

Don Amilo, the Lone Pacer, who paces without driver or prompter, starts from the wire at the word and paces one mile, then stops at the ring of the bell, returning to his owner in front of the Grand Stand.

Two Bands each day will furnish music for the patrons of the Fair. The Great Holton-Elkhorn Band, considered one of the finest concert bands in the State has been engaged.

The Association has built one of the finest Stock Judging Pavilions in the State, at a cost of $7000.

Don't Forget the Dates, September 17, 18, 19, 20, 1918

D. F. ZUILL, President

SAMUEL MITCHELL, Secretary

Elkhorn, Wis.

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESEVILLE,

WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY DAY EVENING.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

By Quarter in Mo. Yr. Advance
Mo. $6.00 $2.35 $6.70
Annual Rates in Book Co. and Mo. Yr. Payable in Advance $6.00 $4.00 $6.70
By Mail Mo. $6.00 $4.00 $6.70 Including Subscriptions overseas to men in U. S. Service.

This newspaper is a member of the Wisconsin Patriotic Press Association and pledges its unswerving loyalty to our country in this war.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the best news published therein.

THE ITALIAN PROPOSITION.

At the present time there is considerable discussion throughout the press of the nation's relation to Italy. Under the caption, "In Favor of Italy," the New York Evening World says:

"It has been a just grievance of the Italian government that the United States has not stabilized rates of exchange with Italy as it did long since with France and with Great Britain."

"Italy's ground for complaint in this direction, the Globe's Washington correspondent informed, will shortly be removed by an agreement between the two governments fixing the values of the Italian lira in American money at a level which will mean that Italy need not, as heretofore, purchase in this country at prices swelled fifty per cent by exchange rates."

"Germany has taken good care that her financial influence in Switzerland and Spain should work as much harm as possible to Italian credit in those countries. All the more has Italy a right to expect from her allies such help as they can give her toward keeping her currency from being depreciated elsewhere."

"The United States showed remarkable hesitation and delay in furnishing Italy with coal and metals at a time when Italy's need of these essentials to keep up her fighting power was extreme."

"Surely there need be no slowness on the part of the United States to take steps that will put an end to discrimination against Italy in a matter of such present economic moment to Italy or any other ally as international exchange."

A VICTORY MARCH.

It would appear as though the cry "To Berlin!" was in truth a powerful slogan for the fighting men of the allies and one of horror for the soldiers of the Hun leaders. Some way or other these German soldiers are retreating and forgetting the gains of that, in their haste to get away from the fighting line. It has been the advent of the United States into the great war game that has brought about this sudden change in the German leaders' views of the war and its possible outcome. These fighting men from America, these men from the mountains and plains, from the valleys and woods, have all crossed the ocean with one idea in view—to make the world safe for democracy—and their appearance on the firing line has been a shock to the delicate sensibilities of the Huns, who firmly believed that their U-boats would prevent their landing in any force, even if the United States ever did organize an army. Led by the forces of Haig on the left and Pershing on the right, with the gallant Foch in the center with his French, the famous German line is slowly but surely being forced back and their retreat is a mighty rout to do.

MEANS ELECTION.

Nomination at the primaries on Tuesday in Rock county practically means election. In the two most interesting contests for county offices, those of coroner and sheriff, Fred Wiley won out for coroner and Fred Beloy for sheriff. This assures the county the services of these two officials for the next two years. In the assembly Thos. S. Nolen defeated his opponent, William W. Gillies, by an almost two to one vote. This means Mr. Nolen's election to a certainty, and it has been suggested that he be a candidate for the speakership of the lower house of the Nineteen-nineteen legislature, by men throughout the state at large who know him and his worth.

THE BRIDGE.

By a vote of fifteen to one the voters of Janesville have advanced the construction of the proposed bridge across the Rock river at Jackson street. With the new industries which promise to make Janesville a city of manufacturing importance, just across this thoroughfare, the new bridge was essential and the citizens did wisely in voting to have it constructed. The fact that while the total vote of the city was light, still the percentage in favor of the bridge was on a ratio of fifteen to one, and shows that Janesville has wakened up to its responsibilities and will keep awake for a bigger and better city with all modern improvements.

Philip appears to be running slightly ahead of his opponent, Wilcox, in the gubernatorial race on the early reports today, but it would seem that the loyalty plow of Wilcox had its effect upon many districts that have hitherto given the governor good sized endorsements.

Tramp! Tramp! Tramp! the boys are marching with Berlin as their goal. The loss of life makes us realize that we are at war even if home conditions have failed to impress us with the fact.

It would appear as though there would be many changes in our congressional representation down at Washington this winter and some of them are for the best.

When a man enters politics all his personal habits are brought to light and are subject of condemnation. That is why some men keep out of politics.

Some way or other the average school boy does not appreciate the fact that these school days are the happiest ones they will ever have.

WHO'S WHO
in the Day & News

SENATOR FRANCIS WARREN.
For twenty-eight years Francis Embrey Warren of Wyoming has been a familiar and distinguished figure in the United States senate.

When he first took his chair in the upper house congress he was forty-six years old in the full flush of a successful career strikingly handsome, with the vigor of the wide west in his make and the alertness of the soldier in his bearing.

"Although he is seventy-four years old no one ever speaks of him as the venerable senator, but for the very good reason that he is not venerable. He is a senator, however, at least until the 4th of March, 1919."

Senator Warren is supported by the Republicans in his candidacy to succeed him, but there are three young Democrats who want the chair that has belonged to the senator for nearly thirty years.

Senator Warren's career is as interesting as it is varied. He was born in Hinsdale, Mass., and received his education at the public schools and academy. He was only eighteen when the civil war broke out, but he enlisted in the sixteenth infantry and served as a private and non-commissioned officer until his regiment was mustered out of service.

For gallantry on the battlefield at the siege of Port Hudson he received the congressional medal of honor.

Senator Warren served in Massachusetts for ten years after the war, not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

MAKE THE WIND SAVE COAL

Ingenious Air Motors That Are Used on Farms Would Serve Well Also for Towns.

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line in France: "Keep the Hun on the run."

It would be hard to trace a resemblance between the picturesque windmills of Holland and the wind-power electric plants to be seen here and there on farms throughout this country.

Another thing we positively refuse to worry about is the reported scarcity of table luxuries in Sweden.

This also goes for Holland, Norway, Denmark and Spain.

Not forgetting our old friend Mexico.

Today's best slogan comes from the American line

PETEY DINK—OR IT MAY BE THAT HE PREFERRED HIS WORMS WITHOUT HOOKS.

Love in a Hurry

By GELETT BURGESS

Illustrated by Ray Walters

"Oh, you can't have believed it, but it's a fact, nevertheless," said Carolyn to Rosamund; and then turning to Mrs. Royalton, she added: "You see, René Hall explained it all to me, and I couldn't really blame him for the way he acted. He was in an awful mess, and had led you and Miss Gale to imagine things that he couldn't get out of, very well. So, as long as I was the one he really wanted, you know, I thought."

"You were the one he wanted!" Mrs. Royalton exclaimed. "Well, then, I'd like to know what you think of that!" And she thrust her hand with the ruby ring into Carolyn's face.

Rosamund turned white. "What is it?" she stammered.

"It's an engagement ring, of course," said Mrs. Royalton.

"René Royalton!" cried Carolyn. "do you mean to say that you have gone behind my back and broken your promised word?"

Rosamund took it up. "You know you said you'd refuse him!"

"Well," said Mrs. Royalton, "I can't help it, but I am engaged to Hall Bonistelle. You two girls must have made some big mistakes, in some way; I don't understand it at all. But you can see for yourself—there's the ring!"

Carolyn looked at her coldly. "René Royalton, you have lied to me! Well, what can you expect from a woman, anyway?"

"Yes," Rosamund added, "the minute your back is turned, and they'll stab you in the back, every time!"

"Why, I had no idea of breaking my word, Carolyn, you know I would never do such a thing as that. It would be utterly unlike me. I've always prided myself on my loyalty. But you see, when it's a case of a man's happiness at stake, his whole life—why, I simply had to sacrifice myself. I'm too generous, I suppose, but I simply had to do it!"

Carolyn gave a harsh laugh. "Well, then we are all three of us engaged to him. It seems we'll have to draw lots for him. Or else stand in a row and let him choose."

"Well, I know one thing," said Rosamund. "I don't intend to release him!"

"Neither do I," agreed Mrs. Royalton.

"Well, I don't mind a fight myself. Carolyn acknowledged, "when it's a question of four millions of dollars."

"Hush!" cried Mrs. Royalton suddenly. "There comes somebody!"

CHAPTER XIV.

The three grew immediately silent, watching the door. Mr. Doremus was walking in with Jones Hassingsbury, talking. Both were in high good humor, the attorney because of his pleasant social success, the Bradford farmer because of the growing probability of his good fortune. They stood for a moment, looking about the studio, and then Mr. Doremus pointed to the door.

"My word, Hassingsbury, look at that! It's after twelve o'clock already!" He extended his hand ceremoniously. "Permit me to congratulate you, sir, upon your accession to the Bonistelle fortune. It is my practice, as you know, never to turn aside. Ere—that is, I seldom permit my self such partiality—so long, however, as fate has decided in your favor, I take pleasure in knowing that you are now the possessor of four million dollars!"

"What's he talking about?" Rosamund whispered wildly.

"Why, it can't be!" Carolyn began, but she was interrupted by the close of the lawyer's speech.

"It is, of course, to be regretted that one of you must inevitably lose, according to Bonistelle's will, and I am profoundly sorry for Mr. Hall Bonistelle, our host, who naturally will be disappointed."

Jones Hassingsbury, meanwhile, had taken out his watch, and was comparing it with the clock. "He—of course—what's that you're saying?" he asked, a little confused. "Oh, Hall! Yes, yes, or course it is hard on Hall if I get the money—but then," and he straightened up, and returned the watch to his pocket—"he's only thrown it away on some woman, and I'll put it to good use. It's far better, after all, that I should have it." He turned ungraciously, to leave. It seemed strange that he was no more excited or exultant.

The three listening women turned silently to one another, each with a look of amazement.

"Why, it can't be! What do they mean?" Mrs. Royalton exclaimed. "Oh, Mr. Doremus, just wait a moment, please." He was about to follow Jonas, when Carolyn darted to him and caught him by his coat.

"Mr. Doremus!" she ejaculated. "I heard something about Hall's losing money—his uncle's will, you know—that was a mistake, wasn't it?"

"How a mistake, Miss Dallys! I wasn't aware that you were interested in the subject, and hardly know what you refer."

"Why, it was all in the papers this afternoon wasn't it? Everybody knows about it!"

"Ah," said the lawyer, "I would advise you not to put too much faith in the papers, Miss Dallys."

"But it said that Hall would get his uncle's money."

Rosamund, who had joined her, broke in—"If he was married or or before his twenty-eighth birthday."

Mrs. Royalton was also in it, excitedly—"And he's twenty-eight tomorrow—no, it's today!"

Mr. Doremus stood, with his hands behind his back, watching them impassively. "Ah, my dear ladies, that just shows how little one can depend upon the daily press. 'On and after,' reporters love such expressions. They positively seem to think that no document is complete without that particular term—"

"But isn't it 'or' or before?" they demanded.

"Not at all. Not at all. The phrase is, to the best of my recollection, 'before he has attained his twenty-eighth birthday.' In the interpretation of the law, one's birthday begins at midnight preceding such date. Mr. Bonistelle's chances for inheriting, therefore, lie upon at twelve o'clock."

One and all turned to gaze at the clock. "And now, it's ten minutes past!" cried Carolyn.

"So it seems!" said Mr. Doremus. "And now, ladies, is there anything else I can do for you? If not, I must rejoin Mr. Hassingsbury and discuss the legal arrangements." With a low bow he passed at once out of the room.

For a moment, the three ladies, nonplussed, were dumb. Then, slowly, Rosamund turned to Carolyn, all her rancor gone. "Well," she said, "don't that beat anything you ever heard in your life?"

It was evident by Carolyn's ironic smile that she considered the remark inadequate, but even she could do no better. Mrs. Royalton was more effective. She burst into tears.

Rosamund began to storm. "Why, it's no better than stealing! That's the only word for it!"

"Lord, don't be a fool!" said Carolyn finally. "We've got the wrong tip, that's all. But I seem to see, now, why Mr. Hall was in so much of a hurry."

"Well, I know one thing," said Rosamund. "I don't intend to release him!"

"Neither do I," agreed Mrs. Royalton.

"Well, I don't mind a fight myself. Carolyn acknowledged, "when it's a question of four millions of dollars."

"Hush!" cried Mrs. Royalton suddenly. "There comes somebody!"

CHAPTER XIV.

The three grew immediately silent, watching the door. Mr. Doremus was walking in with Jones Hassingsbury, talking. Both were in high good humor, the attorney because of his pleasant social success, the Bradford farmer because of the growing probability of his good fortune. They stood for a moment, looking about the studio, and then Mr. Doremus pointed to the door.

"Hall! Oh, Hall!" she called sweetly. She smiled as if upon an angel. "Come in here a minute, will you? I've got a little surprise for you!" She darted back, and took her place with the others, three in a line.

He came in smiling, saw the three outraged ladies, and stopped, with an embarrassed grin. "What is it?" he managed to say.

"Oh, Hall, Hall, you've broken my heart!" Mrs. Royalton wept again.

"Hush up, René. You let me talk. Miss Gale, will you? I'd like to hear just what this particular sort of cur can tell us, then—all three!"

"Guilty!" said Hall, seeing the uselessness of protest. "Now go ahead!"

"Have you got any face to stand there, and calmly acknowledge—" Carolyn broke in. "You deliberately deceived us, then—all three!"

"Just exactly as you decieved ones another," he could not resist adding.

At that, all three broke loose together, and, for the next five minutes Hall Bonistelle faced the music. It was not only useless, but impossible, to answer them. He stood, with his arms folded, bowing and smiling sarcastically.

The stiletto was Carolyn's weapon, but for Rosamund, the bludgeon. "Aha, little Jack-the-Lady-Killer, are you? Three at a shot, eh?" sang in between "You're a cat, Hall Bonistelle, you're a liar and a cheat!" Poor Rena could but feebly pinch him with reproaches; she was dissolved in her woe. So it went, splitting, pounding and blubbering—he ought to be horsewhipped, someone's father or somebody's brother should thrash him! It was an outrage and a disgrace. What if they called in the company to publish his rascality? They were glad, glad, glad he had lost his money; it was good enough for him!

It was then that Hall saw a great light. He gave a laugh that stilled them. "Oho! The money! So that's why you were all suddenly so keen to marry me, was it? Why, I don't see how you women have the nerve to look me in the face! Why, a woman will do anything for money, then, will she? She'll cheat, and lie and cut her best friend's throat behind her back—by jove, you're the coldest-blooded set of female vampires I ever saw in my life! It's a revelation to me! So that's all you wanted, eh? That's why you all hung fire this morning, and got me into this confounded mess—oh, you wanted 'me'! Yes, time to investigate my finances, of course—and then, when you do get wind of this devilish old legacy, then you're all after me on the gallop, like a pack of Siberian wolves—falling over one another to see who can get to the telephone first! Well, thank God I found it out in time! Thank God I'm free of all three of you, you lying, back-biting, mercenary, two-faced hypocrites! Well, it's all over, now. I advise you to train your guns on Cousin Jonas!"

"So it seems!" said Mr. Doremus.

"And now, ladies, is there anything else I can do for you? If not, I must rejoin Mr. Hassingsbury and discuss the legal arrangements." With a low bow he passed at once out of the room.

For a moment, the three ladies, nonplussed, were dumb. Then, slowly, Rosamund turned to Carolyn, all her rancor gone.

"Well," she said, "don't that beat anything you ever heard in your life?"

It was evident by Carolyn's ironic smile that she considered the remark inadequate, but even she could do no better. Mrs. Royalton was more effective. She burst into tears.

Rosamund began to storm. "Why, it's no better than stealing! That's the only word for it!"

"Lord, don't be a fool!" said Carolyn finally. "We've got the wrong tip, that's all. But I seem to see, now, why Mr. Hall was in so much of a hurry."

"Well, I know one thing," said Rosamund. "I don't intend to release him!"

"Neither do I," agreed Mrs. Royalton.

"Well, I don't mind a fight myself. Carolyn acknowledged, "when it's a question of four millions of dollars."

"Hush!" cried Mrs. Royalton suddenly.

"There comes somebody!"

CHAPTER XIV.

The three grew immediately silent, watching the door. Mr. Doremus was walking in with Jones Hassingsbury, talking. Both were in high good humor, the attorney because of his pleasant social success, the Bradford farmer because of the growing probability of his good fortune. They stood for a moment, looking about the studio, and then Mr. Doremus pointed to the door.

"Hall! Oh, Hall!" she called sweetly. She smiled as if upon an angel. "Come in here a minute, will you? I've got a little surprise for you!" She darted back, and took her place with the others, three in a line.

He came in smiling, saw the three outraged ladies, and stopped, with an embarrassed grin. "What is it?" he managed to say.

"Oh, Hall, Hall, you've broken my heart!" Mrs. Royalton wept again.

"Hush up, René. You let me talk. Miss Gale, will you? I'd like to hear just what this particular sort of cur can tell us, then—all three!"

"Guilty!" said Hall, seeing the uselessness of protest. "Now go ahead!"

"Have you got any face to stand there, and calmly acknowledge—" Carolyn broke in. "You deliberately deceived us, then—all three!"

"Just exactly as you decieved ones another," he could not resist adding.

At that, all three broke loose together, and, for the next five minutes Hall Bonistelle faced the music. It was not only useless, but impossible,

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Commits Suicide

Enn Chaire—Worrying concerning his brother's commitment to an insane asylum, enn Chaire, a young son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chaire of this city, to shoot himself through the head Sunday night, according to a note found on his body. He was home on furlough from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. He requested his parents to make his brother happy and "Keep Old Glory on top." He died with his head resting against a flagstaff in front of the grade school he formerly attended.

CHAPTER XIV.

The three grew immediately silent, watching the door. Mr. Doremus was walking in with Jones Hassingsbury, talking. Both were in high good humor, the attorney because of his pleasant social success, the Bradford farmer because of the growing probability of his good fortune. They stood for a moment, looking about the studio, and then Mr. Doremus pointed to the door.

"Hall! Oh, Hall!" she called sweetly. She smiled as if upon an angel. "Come in here a minute, will you? I've got a little surprise for you!" She darted back, and took her place with the others, three in a line.

He came in smiling, saw the three outraged ladies, and stopped, with an embarrassed grin. "What is it?" he managed to say.

"Oh, Hall, Hall, you've broken my heart!" Mrs. Royalton wept again.

"Hush up, René. You let me talk. Miss Gale, will you? I'd like to hear just what this particular sort of cur can tell us, then—all three!"

"Guilty!" said Hall, seeing the uselessness of protest. "Now go ahead!"

"Have you got any face to stand there, and calmly acknowledge—" Carolyn broke in. "You deliberately deceived us, then—all three!"

"Just exactly as you decieved ones another," he could not resist adding.

At that, all three broke loose together, and, for the next five minutes Hall Bonistelle faced the music. It was not only useless, but impossible,

Fiery Eczema and Skin Eruptions Readily Yield to This Old Remedy

Successfully used for 50 years.

Eczema and similar skin troubles come from a disordered, impure condition of the blood, and they can only be cured by giving the blood a thorough cleansing, and removing from it all traces of impurity.

This is why S. S. S. has been used so successfully in hundreds of cases of Eczema and other skin eruptions. This wonderful remedy is without an equal as a blood purifier, being probably the oldest blood medicine on the market. It has been sold by druggists for fifty years. Get a bottle today and begin treatment that will get results.

You are invited to write to-day for complete and full advice as to the treatment of your own case.

Address, Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. H, Atlanta, Georgia.

the past week were Mrs. Chamberlin, son and daughter, Harry and Maude, and Mrs. F. Chamberlin and Albert Unteriner.

Roy Bryant has enjoyed a visit from his sister from Minneapolis this past week.

Mike Huber is having some improvements made on his place which he recently purchased. Harry Wheeler of Darien is doing the work.

Mrs. F. T. Chamberlin of Janesville has been visiting at the home of Mrs. C. Chamberlin the past week.

Walter Grams, who works for M. J.

"CAP STUBBS"

DUCK SEASON OPENS
ON SEPTEMBER 16TH

Conservation Warden William P. Mason has received a circular from the Conservation Commission in regard to the closed season for wild duck.

The state law as it now reads fixes the open season for waterfowl beginning September 16th and continues through September 15th. The circular states that the state law is superseded by the Federal law and that no waterfowl must be shot until September 16th.

Warden Mason stated this morning that the new law makes it plain that no waterfowl must be hunted before September 16th, and that any violations who are caught will be prosecuted under the Federal law.

Sport Snap Shots
MORRIS MILLER

As we have said before, Babe Ruth's hitting will be watched in the world series.

Ruth's tremendous batting power is due to several important reasons. In the first place, he likes to hit the ball. Then again, he is young, giant and strong on a ball with wonderful strength. Furthermore, he possesses confidence.

He doesn't believe that any pitcher can fool him. Having no fear while standing at the plate, he relaxes the chance to avoid a foul ball.

He has keen sight. He is able, therefore, to pick out the good ones. He seldom goes after the bad ones, and can hit anything that comes over the plate between the knee and the shoulder.

There isn't a doubt that nearly all of the enemy pitchers are afraid of Ruth, which is a valuable point in his favor. It's worth the price of admission to see this husky hit the ball.

Connie Mack has always been a wizard in developing ball players and his many successes in the past decade were due to his ability to draw the best men in the line points of the game both on offense and defense.

These eight examples of Mack's uncanny way of handling players can be found on his club this year.

One of these players is George Burns, the fine baseball scout for Mack from Detroit, through a deal with the Yankees. Under Jennings Burns never advanced beyond the stage of an average good ball player. But this year Burns is playing the best ball of his career as a member of the Athletics under Mack. He is holding in better form than ever before, and his hitting has increased until today he ranks with the sluggers of the American league.

Clarence Walker, the outfielder, is a player of nearly six years' major league experience, yet never until this season, in three years at St. Louis and two with the Red Sox, has he shown the class he is now showing.

SPORTS ESSENTIAL IN WAR TRAINING—SOME OF THE LEADERS

These men lead the athletic squads at the Pelham Bay navy training station. Left to right: Captain Gordon of track team, O'Day of swimming, Sevort of wrestling, McCaffney of boxing, O'Boyle of tennis, Eliot of endurance swimming, Bauer of baseball.

Scott Perry, the pitcher, over whose passing Mack and George Stallings had such a fine little row, is another player who developed under Mack's tutelage. Perry used to be one of the cur-free sort who did not keep in the best of shape, and Stallings passed up this player as a poor prospect. But after Mack developed him, the Boston club wanted him badly, which only goes to show what Mack can do with a player.

When a ball player gets his first chance to take part in a world series, the question is often raised as to whether or not the importance of the battle will affect him, or if he will be able to play his usual game with so much at stake. In the coming series between the Red Sox and the Tech player of last year's Great Georgia Tech eleven that is now in the service, and when Heisman assembled the gang this fall the great machine will be but a shell of its former self.

Slim Love can lay claim to one distinction. He has set Ty Cobb down on strikes recently with the bases filled, and few pitchers have turned this trick.

CHICAGO LIFT OPERATORS
OBJECTING TO CRITICISM
RELATIVE TO CLOTHING

[BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS]

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Chicago girl war workers, who are now going up and down in the loop department stores, running elevators, are entirely up, in one respect—and refuse to come down. The Juvenile Protective Association—think of it!—has dared to criticize the garters they wear at work and they big enough to run an elevator!

And the garb—well, according to report, it's anything from a plaid silk skirt, white georgette crepe waist, black, sleeveless jackets and nobby pearl-gray shoes, to something later. The girls assert they are old enough to choose their own clothes, the association, that the clothes they choose are of a nature easily caught in the door of an elevator, and too easily attractive to the less deadly of the species.

FANS WILL WATCH
BABE RUTH'S WORK

Babe Ruth.

There is one player who will draw more attention, undoubtedly, than any other individual participating in the coming world series. That man is Babe Ruth. His deadly work with the bat and his effective pitching this season are too well known to need further comment. Now the fans are wondering if he will prove the home run king of the series and perhaps shine in the box besides.

Edgerton News

Edgerton, Sept. 4.—A very light vote was cast in this city yesterday, only 250 ballots being marked. The local candidate for sheriff received all but 30 of the votes cast, and even with 22 votes cast on the democratic ballot, three on the prohibition ticket, two republicans voted and the balance of the voters voted for the republican ticket. The final count for the Republican candidates is as follows:

governor: Tittemore 23, Wilcox 92; Philip 140, Lieutenant governor:

Everett 71, Nickerson 16, Dithmar 8; Secretary of State: Hull 11, Stiles 1; Treasurer: Johnson 15; Koeppel 3; Landis 1; Lester 62; Attorney general: Haven 101, Elaine 61; Congressional representative in Congress:

Randall 86, Cooper 100. Member of Assembly, First district: Gillies 80, Nolan 105; Sheriff: Springer 186, Beley 13, Chamberlain 11, Maxfield 8; Cononer Whaley 90, Ryan 61.

Mrs. Richard Brown departed for Chicago yesterday where she will visit at the home of relatives.

Mrs. Frank McCrea departed for McKees Port, Penn., last evening where Mr. McCrea holds a position in the annual training departments of the schools of that city.

Mrs. D. C. Gile returned last evening from Madison and Poynette, where she has been visiting for the past ten days.

Baby was taken to the Mercy hospital at Janesville and it is thought he will have to submit to an operation.

E. C. Tallard will move his family to Madison. Mr. Tallard holds a position on the road and is required to make stops for him at Madison. They expect to move about the 15th of the month.

Mrs. A. E. Rader entertained the ladies of the 500 club last evening. Mrs. C. H. Babcock was awarded the honors.

Edward Hubbard, fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hubbard, left for Atlanta, Georgia, where he is on a boy stack near Albion. He was brought to the city yesterday in a rig and an X-ray picture taken of the injured member to determine whether it was broken or sprained.

School will open Monday Sept. 10. It is desired that every pupil shall enter on the opening day. The government is emphasizing the serious mistake of any pupil of high school age discontinuing his school work and parents are asked to realize that the present situation will tend to cause pupils to leave school who are unable to see what it will mean to the pupil in the future.

The ladies of the Monday club will hold an auction after the band concert this evening. The proceeds of the auction will be devoted to the Wisconsin furlough house in France. Home baking, vegetables and other articles will be sold.

Mrs. L. E. Grettie and son Burton returned to their home at Madison yesterday after a visit at the home of relatives in the city.

Mrs. A. E. Stewart returned home today after a visit at the home of her parents at Huntingdon, Ind.

Lawrence Kipp arrived home Monday evening from Butte, Montana, where he has been the past summer.

Miss Florence Flagg is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. Lincoln at Watertown.

Mrs. Craven of Oak Park, Ill., is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. N. Grubb.

veterinarian and agriculture promoter.

The body of Eugenia Steele was brought here from Milwaukee Monday for burial. She was 26 years of age and formerly lived in Lake City, Her mother, Mrs. Frank Steele, a sister, Mrs. Jas. Miller of Michigan, and a brother, Albert from Camp Custer, accompanied the body here for burial.

A cable last evening to John Lindbaum announced that his son Capt. Roland Lindbaum had been promoted to major.

Rev. and Mrs. N. C. A. Garness and Rev. and Mrs. A. O. White in Manitowoc last week. Rev. Garness conducted the mission service Sunday forenoon at Valders and gave a lecture on loyalty in the afternoon.

Miss Agnes Garness leaves this week for Minneapolis to continue her study in music.

Miss Mildred Fox has gone to Chicago to teach this year.

Miss Marie Klein went to Fort Atkinson yesterday to attend a family reunion at the home of Mrs. Swits.

Lieut. Wilfred Williams returned to Dodge, Ia., today after a short visit home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ludeman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Harte at Evansville.

Mrs. Carrie Nezel and daughter, Mrs. Millie Smith of Fort Atkinson were visitors at Mrs. Chas. Blomquist's yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dickerson made a short visit at the home of Millie Anderson here yesterday. They were on their way to Hampton, Ia., from Waukesha.

Oddly Put.

An interesting bit of news about the family next door was in the air when Subbubs arrived home. His little daughter was the first to speak to him. "Oh, papa," she explained, "you can't guess who was born today."

He probably would.

"I am looking," remarked Diogenes, "for an honest man." "And what will you do when you find him?" "I dunno. I'll probably have to lend him money."

Lost and found articles quickly find their owner by use of a little classified ad.

The Golden Eagle
Levy'sA Superb Assemblage of Dresses, Suits and Coats
For Women

This extensive showing of the new models for Fall and Winter affords assortment so complete in every essential in which particular patrons may satisfy every need, practical, semi-dress and dress.

Dresses

Jersey, Satin, Tricotette, Serges and Serge and Satin. Colors: Brown, Navy, Black.

Suits

Silvertones, Duvetyns, Velour Cloths, Bolivias, Tricotine, with varied lengths and tapering skirt line. Colors: King Blue, Autumn Browns, Oxfords, Navy, Pansy, Purple and Black.

Coats

Silvertones, Duvetyns, Bolivias, Wool Velours, promise the better styles.

Wetproof Steel Lined Shot Shells

DOUBLE your duck hunting luck in rough weather with the right shotshells—Remington UMC Smokeless "Arrow" or "Nitro Club" Wetproof Steel Lined "Speed Shells," made to stay dry and firm as a bullet no matter how wet the pocket that contains them, and shoot right.

With the right shells in your Remington UMC Pump Gun or Autoloading Shotgun there will be no hitch at the critical moment—no gun jammed with a water-soaked and swelled shell—no fizzleshot from mushy turnovers of the shell ends.

Remington UMC Smokeless "Arrow" and "Nitro Club" Wetproof Steel Lined "Speed Shells" are completely proofed against wet by a wonderful and exclusive process, which it took three years to perfect. This improvement costs you nothing.

Just buy the same favorite "Arrow" or "Nitro Club" brand, as usual, at the regular price. You will get the Wetproof improvement extra, always.

In black powder shells, buy the old reliable "New Club," now Wetproof sealed at turnover and top wad.

Sold by Sporting Goods Dealers in Your Community.

Clean and oil your gun with REM OIL, the combination Powder Solvent, Lubricant and Rust Preventive.

THE REMINGTON ARMS UNION METALLIC CARTRIDGE COMPANY, Inc.

Largest Manufacturers of Firearms and Ammunition in the World.

WOOLWORTH BUILDING

NEW YORK CITY

